

Saluting Employees

Munson receives Polunsky Unit Employee of the Year Award

In April, former Texas Board of Criminal Justice Chairman Allan B. Polunsky presented CO V Shaun Munson with the 2017 Polunsky Unit Employee of the Year Award at a ceremony held at the unit in Livingston.

Officer Munson has worked at the Polunsky Unit for 23 years and, during that time, has been assigned to duty posts throughout the unit. Munson used only a few words to describe his long career as a corrections professional, saying “Whatever I’m given, I get it taken care of.” Senior Warden Todd Harris added, “Shaun has been nothing but magnificent in regard to his service to us. Any task we assign to him, he takes on wholeheartedly and cheerfully.”

As Polunsky Unit Employee of the Year, Officer Munson was presented with round-trip airfare for two to any location in the contiguous United States, along with a thousand-dollar check.

2017 Polunsky Unit Employee of the Year Award winner, CO V Shaun Munson (center), pictured with former Texas Board of Criminal Justice Chairman Allan B. Polunsky (left) and Senior Warden Todd Harris (right).

“Officer Munson’s work ethic is exemplary and his integrity has remained admirable throughout his years of service,” said Mr. Polunsky, “He has been and will continue to be an asset to this agency, his supervisors, and most importantly, to his fellow employees.” ▲